

Alberta Association of Audiologists

Code of Ethics

Professionalism

- Members demonstrate professional behaviour and integrity in the delivery of safe, ethical, quality services.
- Act with honesty, integrity, objectivity, diligence, competence and courtesy to promote and protect the profession's reputation and public trust and respect.
- Demonstrate compliance with all applicable legislation, regulatory requirements, and standards of practice.
- Represent their qualifications and experience honestly and accurately.
- Communicate in a truthful, responsible and courteous manner maintaining professional boundaries regardless of the medium (e.g., verbal, written, electronic communication and social media, telepractice).
- Acknowledge individual values, culture, needs, and goals, and treat all persons with sensitivity, dignity, and respect.
- Maintain and respect the confidentiality and privacy of all persons.

Collaborative Relationships

- Members foster collaborative relationships to support our profession.
- Communicate in a positive, respectful, constructive, and responsible manner.
- Share information about their professional roles and seek to understand the roles and responsibilities of other service providers.

Accountability

- Members are responsible and accountable for their actions and decisions.
- Avoid or manage any real, perceived or potential conflict of interest in which their professional integrity, professional independence, or the provision of professional services could be influenced or compromised.